

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It works, don't mess with it.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home. I don't have to answer stupid unsolicited phone calls, get rude with people and have phone calls in the middle of my sleep (I work odd hours and am in bed when some of those bastards used to call.....now they don't)

I used to receive 8 to 10 calls per week minimum, now I only receive about one a month. The one's I do receive, I turn in to the Attorney Generals office.

Again, it works...don't mess with it.
Indiana's law.
